seeing both sides of the White Mountains - The journey down was delightful - Jack met me & a warm welcome in more kisses than me freed my home coming
- a very happy useful time, thanks to you &
other friends

I am so sorry that the marked copy I have of your poems has only two or three corrections of misprints

My dearest Aunt: -

The Samans
met me ten minutes before the time appointed and aside from leaving my suit case on the platform & not discovering this fact until we had gone some miles, all went well. It was a great experience.

+ I think it is your own correction. My copy is 1859.

I found a pile of work awaiting but have gone into the Long Island land matter. I have not been able to get hold of Mr. Hill yet. I find the Jacksons have bought one of the large apartments built on the 1234 Pacific St. property. Jacques is working with me and this may be something doing. Can you send the information he asks for Room 2.

Be all three send love.

With devotion
